From the East

Greetings Brethren,

During the month of February, we will have quite a bit to do. First off is our stated meeting with a dinner beforehand. For our dinner we will be serving food from Popeyes. I hope you and your families will join us for dinner.

Next up will be a practice for the officers and anyone wanting to watch and learn how to receive a Grand Lodge Officer into the lodge. This will be happening on Wed., Feb. 12th, at 6:30pm. The reason of brush up is Hanford Lodge will be exemplifying the work at the School of Instruction on Wed., Feb 19th, at 6:30pm. Also, we will hear from Mr. Larry Duba, representing the National Sojourners, Fort Miller Chapter (Fresno), who will be introducing us to what National Sojourners is and how any of our military members (past or present) who would be interested can join; and Ms. Raisa Beckford will be speaking on behalf of Bethel 288, Job's Daughters.

Lastly, we will have an event to foster Brotherly Love and Fellowship. On Feb. 21st at 7pm Hanford will hold a Masonic Poker Night. This event is for the guys and is open to Masons and friends. Our Senior Warden, Skyler Summers, will make sure we have all the necessary items to keep our belly is full and our glasses never go empty!

Fraternally,
Matthew Dawson
